WHAT was the sense, in the first place,

of capturing the Philippines if it is intended to return them to Spain? Why was it so much in

of shot and shell

to capture the Navy?

Why should the Army

lose the gallant soldiers, swept down by the deadly fire of the enemy, if their victory was to result in the return of the captured property?

It is to be admitted that the first impulse of the American people was to return the islands to Spain; but the trend of public sentiment is now in the other direction.

The Hon. JOHN BARRETT, late United States Minister to Spain, gives eight substantial reasons why the United States should keep the Philippines. They are:

1. The Times Star, is done in a prophetic article in The North American Review, written before the declaration of war.

Mr. BARRETT has made a study of the Asiatic countries in their relations to American commerce and to now at Manila. He thoroughly understands the situation from personal observations and from deep study. There are those who may call

Mr. BARRETT a dreamer, an enthusiast and a framer of fantasies. The same terms were once applied to Jefferson, to BEN FRANKLIN, to MORSE, to FIELD, to all other geniuses who have been able to take a long look into the future, who have got in advance of the times, and who are a hundred years. Mr. BARRETT knows whereof he speaks. He knows of the strategic and commercial importance of the Philippines. He has studied carefully the magnificent coast line of Eastern Asia,

that reaches from Singapore and Bangkok to Vladivostok. He knows something of the mighty rivers which empty into the sea along this coast line. He is familiar with its many ports, and knows that the Philippines, more than any other possessions in the East Indies. He knows this area has no equal in the world. He knows, too, that among them all stands out prominently the Philippines, more resourceful, greater in area, population and opportunities than all the West Indies

combined, and so constituted as to command

the commerce and trade of the entire East and the routes leading to them. Mr.

BARRETT has talked with many men who have studied the situation and he has summarized his conclusions, even before

Dewey had achieved his magnificent victory, which victory emphasized every valuable Mr. BARRETT uttered:

1. They form an unsurpassed commercial base in the far East.

2. As England has Hong Kong and

Singapore, France Saigon, Russia Port

Arthur, Germany Kia-Choo, the United States would have Manila as an American capital in the far East.

3. We would have in the islands one of the greatest undeveloped opportunities in the world.

4. Manila is a large and wealthy city,

THE TYPE GUIDE

A Big Wheat Crop

For 1899.

That's our prediction for Mason, Bracken and Robertson counties. We make no pretensions in the way of fortune telling; neither are we a prophet.

We are simply gifted with a goodly amount of "horse sense." We know that there will be a good wheat crop next year, because the bulk of the wheat sown this fall will be sown with Empire Disc Drills, and they make no mistake.

Empire Drills are positive and absolute. They do exactly what you tell them to do. The Empire Disc Drill is the only positive feed drill made. It will feed the same quantity of wheat, rye, oats or barley with the same gear. Size of the grain cuts no figure with the Empire. You do not have to sow four or five acres before you know what you are doing as with other drills. The Empire has telescoping seed conductors which never break or choke up as do the old-fashioned rubber conductors. The Empire drag bars are fastened to the top of the bed, five inches higher than on other drills and trash will not choke and stop the Empire.

Empire

Wheat Drill

will drill corn successfully. Remember, the Empire is a positive feed drill, and the only one on the market. The grain is gently lifted into the conductors by a round, saucer-shaped part which is made to rotate by a square shaft. Only a small grain can be lifted and fed as this part will hold, and in order to sow a large or small quantity of grain per acre you simply put a large or small cog wheel on this shaft, which makes the round, saucer-shaped lift revolve faster or slower. Each cog wheel is numbered and guaranteed to sow an exact quantity of any grain per acre—wheat, rye, oats, barley. The Empire has tapering axles like a thimble-skein wagon, and a peculiar wheel, a wheel that we will guarantee will not rub the boxes in five years as on other drills—no, not in twenty-five years.

Buy the best. Buy the Empire and take advantage of 48 years experience. The factory now offers you the result of a lifetime study and invention, viz: The Empire Disc Drill. Ask your grandfather about it. Ask any old citizen if he ever heard of an Empire Drill. I can show you an Empire Drill that is 31 years old and still running. The Empire for 48 years has had a National reputation—known and used the world over except Mason county. The Empire is not a cheap drill. It costs the agent a little more than other drills. Perhaps that is why your implement dealers have never sold the Empire Drill here. Empire Drills are being exhibited and sold in Mason county now. I have shown this drill to at least 80 farmers in the last two weeks and every one is enthusiastic in its praise.

Call, examine this wonderful machine and convince yourself. It is a pleasure for us to exhibit it. Call and see us.

The G. A. R. Pass Resolutions Favoring the Course of Secretary of War.

OFFICERS FOR ENSUING YEAR ELECTED

A Resolution Adopted Unanimously Endorsing the Prosecution of the War With Spain.

The Convention Votes Down a Resolution Admitting to Membership the Men Who Served in the Spanish-American War.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10.—The encampment convened Friday morning, there was a poor attendance at the morning session. However, considerable business was transacted.

Col. W. C. Johnson, of Cincinnati, O., was elected senior vice commander-in-chief, while Daniel Ross, of Delaware, received the honor of junior vice commander-in-chief. A. R. Pierce, of Nebraska, was elected surgeon general and Rev. R. E. Lucas, of Indiana, was elected national chaplain. All the officers were elected by acclamation.

The various committees made their reports and the reading and adoption of these occupied considerable time. Two ladies of the National Army Nurses' association presented a letter which was read by the adjutant general.

The resolutions offered by Louis Wagner, past commander-in-chief, of Philadelphia, were as follows:

Resolved, That the work of establishing the city of National Military park and the preservation and care of that great battlefield is worthy of the support of every patriotic citizen; that the prominent features of the park be located and marked the battle lines and positions of all the commands in the concluding armies has our hearty approval; further,

Resolved, That we are gratified that the commission, under the supervision of the secretary of war, are pushing the work of marking the line of the army of Northern Virginia as rapidly as the title the necessary land can be secured by the United States; further,

Resolved, That in view of the limited appropriations, the progress which the commission have already made and the stability and excellence of the work already done commands the admiration of every soldier, and we trust that Congress will be liberal in granting the funds to complete the great work according to the plans adopted. The result will be grandly monumental and mark the achievement of pride and patriotism in every true American heart.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, properly certified, be forwarded to the honorable secretary of war.

DAVID MACKAY, M. D., RETIRING SUB-GEON GENERAL.

The report of the committee on the Gen. Grant memorial reported that in as much as the committee of the library of Congress had rejected the statue, Mr. Harrison Simmons, the sculptor of Rome, Italy, had been instructed to replace it as per contract with one that should be satisfactory. It was also reported that Mr. Simmons had been requested to present to the committee on library a clay model of the head, with photograph of the full statue. The statue, according to the report, will not be finished before December, 1909.

There was a lengthy discussion with reference to the admittance of Confederate soldiers who joined the Union ranks and who were honorably discharged at the end of the civil war. The general feeling was that the matter ought to be postponed by the next year, in order that it might be well considered before any decided action be taken. The department of Tennessee was instrumental in bringing up the discussion.

A resolution was passed endorsing the course of Secretary Alger in the conduct of the Spanish-American war. The resolution was as follows:

"Resolved, That from knowledge born of our experience as soldiers during four years of active service, we recognize the unfailing energy and patriotic devotion with which, as secretaries of war, Gen. Alger has borne the great responsibilities and performed the important duties suddenly imposed by the war, and with his spirit, creating and maintaining so large an army under such unfavorable conditions, the deeds of which not only shed lustre on the American soldiers, but challenge the admiration of the civilized world."

The president of the United States was honored by the following resolution:

Resolved, That the G. A. R. has watched with pride and admiration the war, and the untiring, patriotic and statesman-like manner in which our honored comrade William McKinley, as president of the United States of America, has met every demand which the recent trouble with Spain imposed upon our country; that his wisdom and prudence in his endeavors to preserve peace with honor, as well as the vigor and patriotic ardor with which our army and navy were equipped for the conflict when war became imminent, has won our hearty and unreserved approval and commendation; and, repelling to the glorious termination of the conflict in which our country has been engaged, we hereby express our gratitude not only to our distinguished comrade, the president of the United States, but to the officers and men in our land and naval forces for the heroic conduct and sublime achievements for humanity and the glory of our flag and country.

The convention voted down a resolution to admit to membership in the G. A. R. the men who served in the Spanish-American war.

The convention scored United States Pension Commissioner Evans in a resolution. President McKinley is called on by the Grand Army to "exercise his authority in having the law executed in the spirit of fairness, justice and liberality." Evans' conduct is declared to be inimical to the interest of honest applicants for pensions.

The resolution recites that though there are 653,000 applications for pensions pending the commissioner has discharged 100 clerks. The statements of Evans should be taken with reserve, so the committee on pensions declares.

THOMAS J. STEWART, RETIRING ADJUTANT GENERAL.

There were two opposing votes on the resolution—Silas Leland, of Toledo, and J. M. Longueur, of Chicago.

There was one opposing vote in the convention. The chairman of the committee on this resolution is ex-Pension Commissioner Corporal Tanner.

The resolution providing for the re-instatement of Brocton (Mass.) post was snuffed in a committee vote.

The resolution ensuring public officials who ignore laws providing for engaging veterans in public work was also snuffed.

At 12:30 a committee was sent out to bring in the newly elected officers, who were installed.

At the session of the Woman's Relief Corps, in Grand Folio's hall, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Flo Jamison Miller, of Illinois; vice president, Mrs. Mary C. Wentzel, of Cincinnati; junior vice president, Ellen T. Daniels, of West Virginia; national treasurer, Mrs. Isabelle T. Bagley, re-elected.

The ceremony of installing newly elected officers was performed by Comrade Wagner, of Pennsylvania. The new commander-in-chief, James A. Sexton, of Chicago, immediately after his installation, received from Mrs. Alexander, president of the Woman's Relief Corps of the department of Illinois, who was accompanied on the platform by Mrs. John G. Black, a beautiful bouquet of roses accompanied by a felicitous speech of presentation, to which Commander-in-Chief Sexton made a happy reply.

The last action of the encampment was the adoption by rising vote of a vote of thanks to the retiring Commander-in-Chief Gen. Gobin, who briefly returned his thanks. At 2:30 p. m. the final adjournment took place.

LADIES OF THE G. A. R.

Mrs. Agnes Winslow, of Chicago, Was Elected President—A Revision of Their Ritual.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10.—The ladies of the G. A. R. were in session all day and night without stopping for refreshments Friday evening in order to complete their session. The morning session was devoted to the revision of their ritual, the afternoon session to the election of officers and the evening session to the installation and unfinished business.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Agnes Winslow, Chicago; senior vice president, Mrs. M. P. Cahoon, Elvira, O.; junior vice president, Mrs. Pauline Willis, San Francisco, Cal.; treasurer, Mrs. Etta Tohy, Los Angeles; Int. chaplain, Mrs. Margaret Stevens, Newark, N. J.; councilor, Mrs. Flora M. Dwyer, Duluth, Minn.; delegate, Mrs. Annie Lind, Duluth; Mrs. Emma Wall, Lawrence, Kas.; Mrs. Aurilla Sherman, Keokuk, Ia.

The officers were installed by Mrs. Frances N. Wood, of Topeka, Kas. President Winslow will appoint a secretary and other officers at some time in the near future.

CORWALL, Ont., Sept. 10.—Six bodies were recovered from the wreck of the New York and Ottawa bridge over the St. Lawrence Friday.

TO INVESTIGATE. HAVANA AFFAIRS.

President McKinley Has Had the Matter Under Consideration for Some Time.

A COMMISSION WILL BE APPOINTED

It Will Visit and Make Report Upon the Conditions of the Various Army Camps.

The Commission Will Be Composed of Eminent Men, Whom the People Know—It Is Believed Enlarged Complaints From Camps Have Been Made.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—It is said that the proposed commission for the investigation of affairs of the war department has been under consideration for some time by the president. Just what its duties will be when appointed has not been definitely determined, but it can be stated that one reason for its creation will be to visit and report upon the conditions in the various army camps and to satisfy the anxious relatives of soldiers that the care that is being taken of them is the best that can be afforded, and if not, to ascertain what should be done and report to the war department. Officials at the war department say that inspectors and army officers have been sent to make investigations, and where any fault has been discovered it has been corrected. The suggestion is to have a commission composed of eminent men, whom the people all know, to make a tour of the camps and see what is lacking and to say what the real conditions are. Whether or not the commission is to extend its investigations into the conduct of the war department in relation to other features of the war remains to be seen. The war department officials believe that there have been greatly exaggerated complaints made of the different camps and that this should be first investigated so as to convince the fathers and mothers and other relatives of the soldiers that their men are being well taken care of.

The president has decided to appoint a commission to investigate the war department. Maj. Gen. Schofield and ex-Senator J. B. Gordon, of Georgia, have been asked to accept places upon the commission.

THE BOARD FULL

Senator George Gray, of Delaware, Accepts the Appointment as One of the Peace Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Upon his arrival at the state department Friday Assistant Secretary Moore stated that the five peace commissioners were Senator George Gray, of Delaware. The senator, it is understood, reconsidered his determination to decline at the earnest solicitation of the president.

SENATOR GEORGE GRAY, DELAWARE.

The full board now consists of Senator C. K. Davis, Secretary Day, Senators Fry and Gray and Whitlaw Reid.

George Gray was born at Newcastle, Del., May 4, 1847; was attorney general in 1870, and served two terms; was appointed to the United States senate as a democrat, to succeed Thomas E. Bayard, who became secretary of state, was re-elected in 1887 and 1890.

THE OCEAN HOUSE BURNED

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 10.—The Ocean house, one of the largest and best known hotels on the Atlantic coast and the center of attraction to visitors in the city for over half a century, was burned to the ground Thursday afternoon. Sparks from the great conflagration fell over the thickly populated city and caused three or four roof fires. Fortunately none of them caused very much damage.

Leon Will Not Serve on Spanish Peace Board.

MADRID, Sept. 10.—The Herald says that Senator Leon y Castillo, Spanish ambassador to France, is determined in his resolve not to serve on the Paris peace commission, even though his refusal should cost him his ambassadorship, and is coming to Madrid to inform the government of his intention.

American Steamer Reported Lost

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—The steamer Ooptic, which arrived here from the Orient Friday, brings the news from Hong Kong that the American steamer Wingfoot, Capt. Sherman, is supposed to have gone down with all hands.

Two Reporters Drowned

MONTREAL, Sept. 10.—A telegram from Chicoutimi, Quebec, says two Chicago newspaper reporters were drowned in the Grand Discharge rapids Friday. The two guides were saved.

All Classes Are Awaiting the Arrival of the United States Military Commission.

FEELING OF DOWNGRANT IMPATIENCE.

It Is Believed That Prosperity Will Immediately Follow in the Wake of the Commissioners.

Everybody Has Some Grievance to Air or Some Plan to Execute—A Decrease Is Expected in the Production of Cattle in the Province.

HAVANA, Sept. 10.—All classes are impatiently awaiting the arrival of the United States military commission. The public has spent most of the day gazing seaward or watching the flagstaff on E. Morro for the signal that the United States transport Resaca has arrived. There is a feeling of downright impatience at the commission's non-arrival.

The general public, especially the soldiers, seem to imagine that the advent of the commission will immediately change the entire state of affairs; that prosperity will be in the wake of the commissioners; that the streets of Havana will be paved with gold coins and that Manna will fall from Heaven.

Everybody has some grievance to air or some plan to propose which it is fondly imagining the commission will listen to and consider. One can really see reason for the unbounded joy with which the approach of the commissioners is awaited, the emotion is quite hysterical for the war-torn children are as much interested as the men.

The city Friday wore a holiday aspect and every reason is adduced for the delay. A morbid curiosity on the subject affects all classes. No gatherings, crowds or demonstrations, however, have been permitted.

Senor de Castro, civil governor of Havana, has requested Gen. Blance to issue a decree suspending the confiscation of cattle in the province, as has already been done in the province of Matanzas. It is confidently expected that Gen. Blance will adopt the suggestion and make the necessary order.

The security of cattle throughout the island is telling heavily in every branch of agriculture.

Senor de Castro Friday issued an order to the presidents of the committees having the soup kitchens in charge in Havana, directing them to use the stock of supplies on hand and then to close the kitchens.

The order asserts that the conditions which originally rendered necessary by the establishment of the kitchens have now disappeared, as since the blockade was raised business and farm life have resumed their normal activity, thus rendering charitable relief unnecessary. The order will go into effect Saturday.

Advices from all the Cuban camps show the sincerity of the desire of the insurgents to maintain order.

All attempts at riot, violence or robbery are summarily punished by imprisonment. On September 3 five men belonging to the command of Eduardo Garcia were court-martialed by the insurgents at Matanzas and sentenced to be shot for a theft of money and cattle. The sentence was carried out.

A CRITICAL TIME. During the Battle of Santiago—Sick or Well, a Rash Night and Day.

The Pickers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba Were All Heroes—Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Supplies to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago de Cuba, on July 23, says: "We had diarrhoea more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packmen had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the managers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa, for use by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.
